In Dedication

Fifteen years ago, when Buchtel opened its doors, the spirit of Buchtel was born. Analyze this spirit and you will find that the school's motto, "Character, Citizenship and Culture" are its dominant, true, traits.

For fifteen years, this spirit has been nurtured by the students and faculty. Through the carefree days of pre-war peace to the tense, terrible years of war and then back again to a greatly, more deeply appreciated peace, Buchtel's spirit has not been changed.

We, who entered in 1942 saw each graduating class accept new responsibilities. They set the pace that we followed. And today, as we are about to enter the world, we realize that ours is a spirit that will keep the peace; that the chance for eternal peace does not lie with the atomic bomb, but in universal understanding.

This, then, is our dedication . . . to the spirit of Buchtel, may it flourish and fill the world.

15 Years Of Buchtel High

In the spring of 1931, the Akron Board of Education chose the name, John R. Buchtel for the newly erected high school at 1040 Copley road. Thus, our alma mater was christened and ready to accept its first group of students the following September. Through the generous aid of the other high schools, Buchtel formed an excellent faculty under Mr. C. J. Bowman, our first principal. The opening year featured much activity; first the school emblem, the Griffin, was chosen by the student body and secondly the colors of black and white made our arrival into city school life official. From the very beginning, Buchtel sponsored a full sports program under Mr. Bob Harper who was here two years. Many extra-curricular activities inaugurated this year such as the orchestra and glee clubs under the guidance of the music department; the dramatic club, library club, Science club, Comwolei, Buchtel's service club, Staff and Stanza, devoted to those interested in music and poetry and the National Honor Society.

At the first Commencement exercises in June 1932, the scholarship, manhood and womanhood cups were awarded.

Buchtel is the possessor of an original alma mater, an official seal and a flag which students themselves have produced.

The verse of the alma mater was written by Mary Agnes Simmons and Virginia Cooper. The music was written by Harry Chalmers and voted on by the student body. The seal, symbolic of our three-fold purpose, Character, Citizenship and Culture was designed by Mildred Montgomery, under the direction of Mr. L. O. Weiss. In 1938, the students voted for the flag designed by Sam Scherr, June 1941.

In the fall of 1932 the Student Council was organized under the sponsorship of Mr. L. O. Weiss. The purpose of this Council was to represent student opinion and to perform those duties which would aid the administration of the school. The first duty of the Council was to maintain order during the lunch hour, but this has grown to include the duties of chartering and regulating school clubs, formulating rules governing extra-curricular activities and dances, handling election returns and performing numerous other small duties. Every two years the Council puts out a "B" book, designed to acquaint new students with Buchtel high.

An advisory group to the Student Council grew out of a temporary committee appointed by Mr. O. Schneyer and was called the Activities Committee. This group is composed of seven faculty members and seven students under the chairmanship of the principal. Their duties include scheduling events, establishing school policy and taking the jobs not delegated to the Student Council.

Also in 1932 the school newspaper was founded. Project of a sophomore English class, taught by Miss

Meet Our Principals and Sponsors

Every four years at Buchtel a class graduates; with them they not only take memories of good times and hard work, but more important, the experience of meeting and living with people who exemplify Buchtel's motto, "Character, Citizenship and Culture". Mr. Oscar Schneyer, principal, has provided a helping hand in building citizenship values and in developing character; to him, many of us owe much more than can be said in words. Miss Beatrice Rentschler, assistant principal has kept our goals in mind and provided us with an ever watchful eye, both to our grades and in small manners of habit that make up an individual. Fred Weber, assistant principal is well known throughout school by his keen interest in our school activities and ourselves. He is the person who is always there with a good laugh and who is sought out for special conferences on our chances of winning tomorrow's game. All in all, there are no words which can express our appreciation to our principals who made high school more profitable and worthwhile.

Ask any senior who was responsible for our special senior activities, and the chances are he will say the names of our three advisors, Miss Lucille Gustafson, Miss Florence Wooddell and Miss Bertha Maier. Besides carrying on a full teaching schedule, they willingly gave their spare time to advising senior committees on social doings, and the serious side of being seniors. It was through their counseling that we had such fine times at our picnics, at the Christmas party and especially the graduation exercises. Their understanding of senior activities and school policies were so correlated that we, the senior class got every benefit possible. For aiding us in experiencing all of the fun as the senior class, we give our heartfelt gratitude.

Our Ideal Teacher

There comes a time in every senior's life when he dreamily looks back over his high school career; back to many hours spent in classrooms with teachers trying to implant in our reluctant minds that theory of atomic structure or the social significance of the short story. And as he looks back he thinks of his teachers in Lincoln's words: "With malice toward none, with charity to all." And so, we hope you don't mind if we do a little daydreaming and construct an ideal teacher; a teacher who, we feel, would be ideal to suit our purposes.

Now First of All

If our teacher is a woman, she must have the friendliness of Miss Ada Bell. Her eyes must have that merry twinkle and understanding light that Miss Sara Mooney's do. She must be able to be as feminine as Miss Dorothy Nesbitt and have the carriage of Miss Clara Goss who also will add a nice touch of sarcasm. For sophistication, our only choice could be Miss Josephine Amer and Miss Margaret Oechsener would add just the touch of awe that students usually need. We would take Mrs. Leora Stoneburner's humaness and add Miss Dorothy Boesche who tries to teach us. Whose discerning eye in artistic matters could we use, except Miss Frances Robinson's? And this ideal teacher must absolutely have the kind of personal interest that Miss Grace Courtney has. Our nomination for vivaciousness goes to Miss Kathryn Sexauer (how that woman does loom up in the library at the wrong time!) She must have the cheerfulness of Miss Mary Fisher and have the kind of classes Miss Mabel Riedinger conducts. Also we would take Miss Riedinger's dramatic voice which really sends you.

For the ideal "buddy" with plenty of pep and vigor, who else but Miss Madeline Fier? And if we could incorporate some of Miss Helen Pfahl's patience, classes would be a cinch. Essential in our character (as "she" has now grown to be) is Miss Margaret Weller's frankness and add to that a strong amount of strictness with fairness included, donated by Miss Emma Stuckey.

For aid in learning we will take those endless amounts of outlines which Miss Josephine Hinsdale gave out so lavishly when we were sophomores. For a teacher who can rightly interpret school problems so that we understand them, give us Miss Margaret Nottingham. For downright niceness, Mrs. Beulah Hudson fills the bill.

Our character will have the sweetness of Miss Dorothy Whittington and we like the way Miss Anna Simpson and Miss Inez Parshall tell us what is wrong with our ideas. (Which reminds us . . . "See the wild geese flying?")

For enthusiasm, give us Miss Dorothy Marty who is also a good organizer. And so we come to the finale of our make believe woman teacher . . . oops! wait a second, we seemed to have forgotten our senior class advisors, Miss Lucille Gustafson, Miss Bertha Maier and Miss Florence Wooddell; but then you see, the only thing we can say about them is that they have combined most all of the virtues we idealize and believe us, that isn't easy.

If "It's" A Man

Now if we have to have a man teacher, we would certainly start off with the friendliness of Mr. Harland Horton. To fit our idea of a man he would have to be able to fix things up like Mr. Clifford Wertz. Depending upon what sex you are, you can take your choice between Mr. Harry Weir's hair or the style that Mr. L. O. Weiss seems to prefer. He must have Mr. Ronald Switzer's appealing eyes when the Talon wants to spend more money than we have and his strictness could only be attributed to Mr. Vincent Biondo. His voice must have that pleasing quality and intentness that Mr. W. L. Neuenschwander's has. For shyness, our choice would be Mr. Robert Palmquist who has that little boy charm. Mr. Milton Seitz, is our choice for a "buddy" regardless of whether he is the cause of our "aching backs".

We like Mr. Charles Kinney's suaveness and definitely not the man to see about advertising is Mr. Howard Reeves. He is our choice for "personality". If we didn't know better we would think Mr. Otis Maxwell was a southern gentleman because of his slow drawl that makes you listen to every word and for the qualities of forthrightness and honesty, give us Mr. Bogner.

For tenacity, who else could you suggest except "Coach" Porosky and for that perfect example of man take a look at Mr. Dave Appleby.

We mentioned in the beginning that we would like a teacher to suit our purposes but the only purposes seniors have is to get that diploma and let the search for our ideal teacher be conducted by the other classes at Buchtel. And anyhow, it's much nicer to have forty-three teachers who possess at least one quality than to have one perfect.

We Hereby Bequeath

In 4,000 A. D., the year 1946 will be long remembered. For in this year, a time-lock, that had been placed on an indestructible steel safe will open. Within the safe will be found such various and sundry articles as a copy of "Forever Amber" (the manufacturer couldn't keep up with the demands), a gallon of gas (after the atomic age took over, no one had any use for this precious commodity of '44-45), the last automobile produced before the helicopter came into its own, the last rayon stockings ever manufactured (thank gosh!) and foremost among these treasured articles, is a well preserved scroll of paper. This paper reveals what the intelligent youth of 1946 placed their value on.

Why even now I can see a surprised citizen of Swonville, U. S. A., reading to all the residents of his town, the famous will of the fifteenth graduating class of John R. Buchtel High School. In a loud and strong voice, this little man with two heads reads:

"We, the graduating class of 1946, being of sound mind and fully dressed, do leave behind us our fond memories, treasures, unique personalities and queer characteristics. We feel we are fortunate that our black marks surpassed the red ones on our report cards. Therefore; let this be known as the last will and testament of the intelligent Class of '46.

Item I. Nancy Kniffin leaves her freckles to Martha Minck, who needs them to go with her red hair. Following (the trend toward) redheads, is Bill Chandler, leaving his love for red-headed women to Dick Everhart. Patt Etling bequeaths her (long hoped for) "Bachelor of Science Degree" to Dutchy Kearschner while Barb Kurz thankfully leaves her chemistry test grades to Joyce Shoemaker and all those who care to pass. (That's a joke, son!)

Item II. Robert Henry Spoethe leaves his empty bottles to Jim Costello and Moe Goldstein. Jack Kurz leaves with a sigh of relief that he made it in the routine four years and hoping that Jim Costello will follow soon. Russell Oberlin leaves his fourth period piano playing to the third period "would be Rembrandts". Jean Price hopefully leaves her ability to anyone who can figure out what it is! To ALL, Emil Taxay wills such novel things as hot shirts, synthetic ties and megalomania.

Item III. In this category we find such brain trusts as Frank Bland leaving precious articles to help the success of future seniors. Frank leaves his newly published book, "How To Play Dirty Basketball" to Bob Southerland. Pat Hays leaves her extraordinary singing voice to Janet Marr. Marilyn ("Where did you get that red face?") Miller wills her super sun lamp and sun porch to pale Anne Guth. Annie also receives Phyllis Spindler's long, long, hair. And "brainy" Betty Wise leaves her scrawniness to unfortunate Joan Vernotzy.

Item IV. Mary Boyers relinquishes her seat in study hall to Veronica Smallfootz, (that elusive little character) while Marge Wagner and Mary Dix combine their heights and offer it to Judy Cole. Pat Emmons also comes into the possession of a little height, donated by Vallia Laube. Virginia Pale leaves her big blue eyes to anyone who can wink. Bob Robertson gladly gives his place on the bench to anyone interested as Larry Ahern wills his "H" of a pickle in history class to anyone with courage to use it. Juanita Crislip leaves something for the fellows to whistle at. Bill Hrubik gives the back seat in third and fourth period chemistry to anyone who feels he can fill it.

"Si, Si," says Esther Sanyo as she leaves her passion for anything Spanish to Phil Ferdinand and Muriel Koller leaves her mad "amor" for Spanish to future senores and senoritas under Miss Marty's spell.

Harry Ness leaves his five o'clock shadow to Dan Boone and Al Dennis heaves a sigh of relief as he hands over the headaches and long hours connected with the Talon to Jack Martin. Jean Musser leaves the junior girls wishing they could look like that so early in the morning.

Item V. Connie Keegan leaves sister, Mari, bitter memories of chemistry (with the likewise grades) and to some unsuspecting junior, the Griffin headaches. Dick Lieberth leaves his pocket edition of "Forever Amber" to Miss Riedinger. Viola Bohm leaves her brains in bookkeeping to anyone in need of them. To Miss Rentschuler, Dave Colville donates one slightly used box of Kleenex. Dave Huprich swings out, wishing we had discovered his band sooner.

Gwen Richards leaves her natural blond hair to Jean Ferriot; Jean also will be rewarded with one unused bottle of H₂O₂, to keep her blond always. Delivery will be made by Pauline Gustely. Helen Fogler leaves her "good reasons for Monday morning absence" to Janet Alden. A lantern and a flashlight is left by Ralph Jusell to the new morning school students, who must come to school in the wee small hours. Penny Carroll leaves her convertible and driving ability (?) to Marilyn Fisher.

Item VI. M. Michael Thornton leaves and we quote: "To Louise Pitman; the bottle my brain is in so that she will have a place to store the acid she has used all year to etch the names on page 2 of the Talon." P. S. May I convey my thanks to Mr. T.—L. P.

Justine Fuller leaves her place in library to anyone who can ably fill it. On the other hand, Joanne Rowe willingly leaves her ability to get lectured at in the library to the "Zaharopoulos girls" and Louella Emanuel.

And, In The Future

Fifteen long years ago, the biggest problem in the life of young Harold Colley, was how he could talk Mother into that ice cream cone without the subject of how it would ruin his appetite coming up. Yet here it is, thirty years later, H. C. Colley is worrying about how to save "Colley's Colossal Circus" from the hands of Killer John Kiel and his gang. "Killer" Kiel holds the mortgage on the old homestead and unless the circus pays up, the entire cast is doomed. As Leno Alessio jumps around on his vaulting pole filling the giraffes with some of Dick Sanford's special brew, Harold Schneider is running around scaring everyone with his (Rhett) Butler (U.) accent.

After the old one ("The show must go on" routine,) I retired to my seat in the bleachers and none too soon:

Ta-Ta-Ta-Ladies and Gents! Our first act of the afternoon will be that of Tom Froelich, who will drive his famed "struggle buggy" through a circle of flames . . . (That is, if he can start it) Spreading the flames and still going around in circles is Howard Reed while inside is Betty George doing her hip haway rumba, enough to make anything burn.

To the right of this act is Bob Turney, being shot from a cannon (government surplus); quotes this thrilling man "This is the quickest way to Pot Handley . . . and no passport needed."

Taking my eyes off the act for a minute, I see Bob Hile is sweeping the steps . . . (I think he did want to be some kind of a custodian back in '46) Bradley Peters is busy snapping all the pictures of the celebrities . . . ah! but what's this? The little man is saying words . . . oh yes, he forgot to open the shutters again.

Here comes the Grand March! Leading it is "Boss" Laibe with his U. S. Army private's patch still shining on his sleeve with high stepping Mary Highfield right in step behind him. Behind them is head clown and laugh-getter, Paul Gauder (ah, yes! there are good laughs tonight.) with his companions, Dick Hoffman, Bill Oates and Alex Velikoff.

Still head of the monkey business is Don Davidson, see him? (No, that's Don on the left) Only now he's said to have some of the cutest monkeys ever found in Africa.

Atop a horse in those spangled tights, is Carolyn Sandels. Following along behind is Al Ferrise playing the calliope in tune to Elizabeth Garver who is singing Bill Estes' lyrics to Beethoven's "Fifth". Bill was the master-mind behind all those singing commercials at B. H. S.

The funniest of all the clowns is Bob Harpham with the biggest feet I have ever seen. At the end of the parade is Noel McLane, who has what it takes to make anyone follow. (The exercises finally worked!)

"Smoking in the outer lobby only, please." This call tells me it's intermission time and so I wander down the midway. Booths to the right of me, booths to the left of me, into the aisles of the unknown, walk all suckers.

First wonder of this new and strange world of mystery is "Meme" Ekus who can make a day last 54 hours and yet the poor girl still doesn't find time to sleep.

The only secretary to balance successfully on the boss's knee is Mildred Mueller, while to my wondering eyes appears Joe Zutty, the only boy in the class of '46 that remained a bachelor, strange as it seems. On the other hand is Harold Frease, next door, who is surrounded by his harem (They just couldn't refuse his little trick with the rubber ball).

Feeling in the need of some light refreshment, I stopped at Harold Talisman's "Pickle in the Middle and Mustard on the Top Shoppie" and while there I was served by the cutest waitress (with a well developed . . . personality), Kathy Koehler.

Traveling on down the rocky path I heard the call: "For one thin dime, see Jesse Raynes, the richest man on earth, who has to dig through his money to find his bed" and shouting this ever so loudly is poor man Jim Smith. Deciding that I would rather spend my money at the wedding of Jackie Sherman and THE Louis Prima, I turned the corner and bumped smack into Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ekus, the former Betty Bloom.

AFTER 12:00

A Typical Senior Week-end

By Jean Motz

AT THE LOCKER—Ah, the institution of the locker.

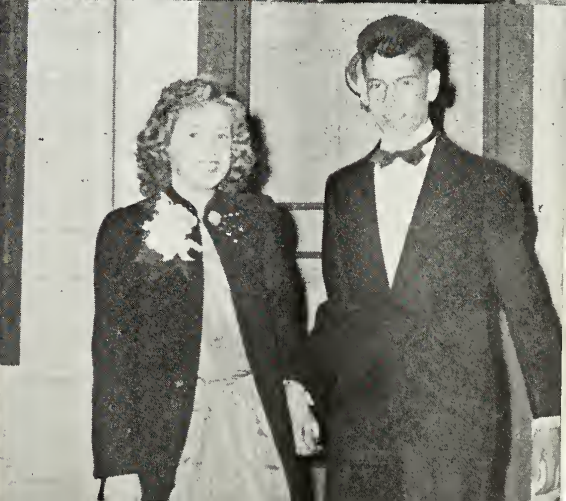

A place to make a date, break a date, hear the latest, tell the latest, meet a friend and incidentally you also keep your coat and books there. These seniors illustrate our point, as they hold a conference on week-end plans.

AH! SWEET SLUMBER—Someday I hope to write a book on why a slumber party should not be called a slumber party. Slumber parties include cokes, potato chips, ham sandwiches on rye with mustard, dancing, chatter and bull sessions but NOT SLUMBER! Let there be an end to this constant deception.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON—"How would I like to clean up the back yard or fix up the old jalop? How would I like to jump off the empire state building? Why don't parents just tell you to do these nasty chores instead of asking you if you'd like to. The temptation to be truthful is too great.

AT A FORMAL DANCE—Hubba, Hubba. This is what Saturday nites were made for. It's not that we don't love the Hit Parade but I prefer moonlight, soft music, and a formal—thank you.

And if you think I worked hard for this date—you're right!!

OUR THIRD HOME—THE DRIVE-IN—Let's see—a glass of tomato juice would be best for my figure but make that one large cheeseburger with everything but onions and a double rich milkshake, please. Yummmmmm

AH! FREEDOM, AT LAST—When in the first grade we chanted .

"School's out, school's out

Teacher let the mules out."

but now with a sophisticated toss of the head we comment, "Hep Hep to hooty—dig this Jackson it's Friday—Reet and ain't that neat?" translated—"We like Friday."

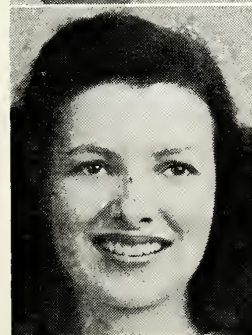

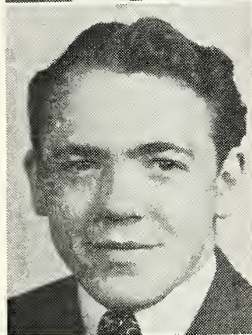

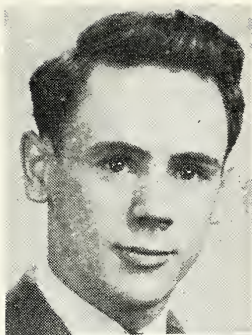

The last class left out at 12—but it's a well known fact that seniors open the school in the morning and close it, tight at night.

STUDYING LIKE MAD—Sunday evening is spent lounging about the house, listening to the radio, your favorite records, calling your gal, or in general relaxing and enjoying ones self, 'course those books don't really mean a thing, they're just on the desk for decoration—Know any more funny stories!!!

BACK TO SCHOOL ON MONDAY—Ah, what Monday will bring. Peace and quiet, with oodles of time to talk about the whole weekend with your buddies, after all the teacher is just trying to make a good impression (and with the size of the ruler in his hand it looks like someone will have proof positive).

Carry On!

Graduation, in a world of peace, is near at hand. As graduates, we begin our lives as soldiers, students, workers and citizens in a new Atomic Age.

Those of us with initiative will rise as leaders, but for the most part, we will go forward as common workers. It is our duty, as workers, to mold our thoughts with those of more gifted persons, and united, work toward world betterment.

The opportunities of atomic energy are before us. We, as graduates, may attain the goal of world peace that millions before us have failed to reach, if we use this energy constructively.

We look to you, the January Class of 1947, to support us by carrying on the traditions of past Buchtel seniors, and by upholding the ideals of Character, Citizenship and Culture.

January Class of 1947, Carry On!

Sam Tillett, President
Class of 1946

We Will!

To the departing Seniors:

We, the class of January, 1947, have watched the 12A class of June, 1946, as they have progressed in character, citizenship, and culture during their four years spent here at Buchtel High. We have seen them take the lead in school leadership; leadership which we know they will exhibit in the future years.

It is the ambition of the 12B class to carry on where the graduating class leaves off. To assume the leadership and develop the traits that Buchtel stands for. We intend to keep Buchtel standards high.

We wish you well; we expect great things from you because we know you have matured to meet the tasks that await you. Class of '46, congratulations and good luck.

The Student Council

The Student Council, whose purpose is to represent the student body in school government, has grown up with Buchtel. Fifteen years ago members were appointed by the faculty, but since then it has become more democratic with election of members by the classes. This year John Laibe, president; Bob Huston, vice president; Nancy Kniffin, secretary and Nan Sumner, treasurer composed the executive committee. Outside of its regular functions of sponsoring school dances, selling pencils, chartering clubs and school programs, outstanding activities consist of the following: sponsoring of two Open Houses; buying accessories for band uniforms and providing new mirrors for restrooms. Sponsored by Mr. L. O. Weiss, the Council consists of the following members: freshmen Carol Hodge and Rodney Crislip; sophomores, Martha Minck, Margery Sturdevant, Dwight Vincent and Bill Smithers; juniors Virginia Collins, Nan Sumner, Bill Holden, Bob Huston; Seniors Mary Dix, Betty Wise, Nancy Kniffin, Harold Colley, Sam Tillett, Barbara Timmins and John Laibe. This year the Council has been progressively active in rounding out the student body activities.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, honorary club whose members must be in the upper third of the senior class and show leadership and citizenship traits, inducted 39 seniors this year. One of the greatest honors a senior hopes for, the N. H. S. strives to pick the outstanding people. The election of students is based on faculty recommendations. Anyone in the upper third of his graduating class is automatically eligible. Sponsored by Mr. O. Schneyer, the officers selected by this group are: Mary Dix, president; Helen Louise Myers, vice president; Ed Mazak, secretary and Betty Wise, treasurer.

This year the club has helped with clerical help. Major project was the distribution of questionnaires on "Help on Tests", which were given to the student body.

The Talon Writes "30"

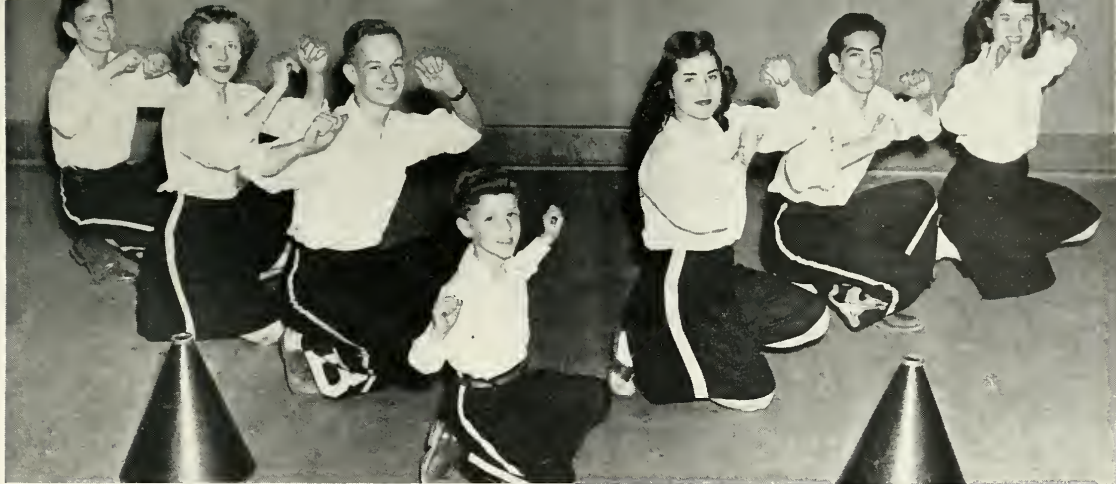

Once again the Buchtel Talon successfully writes "30" after an outstanding year of service to the school and the student body. Started in 1931, as a small classroom project of Miss Dorothy Whittington, English teacher, the paper soon became a part of school life and has since provided students the chance for creative writing and journalistic practice. This year the executive staff, composed of Connie Keegan, Editor-in-chief, Mary Highfield, News Editor, Louise Pitman, Editorial Editor, Doris Foust, Feature Editor and Allan Dennis, Sports Editor, have set a new high in providing the student body with a paper to serve the school.

Besides editing and publishing a paper every two weeks the Talon has also found time to sponsor a tax stamp collection with the Dramatic Club, and a Clean-Up Day. The Buchtel Talon also originated and started the Inter-High Press Association which is designed to bring together journalists from all the city papers, in an effort to aid school papers collectively.

Of course, editors couldn't edit a paper unless there were people who would get the news to write. This year, the Talon has been lucky in having contributors such as Virginia Plale and her column, "Ginny Jumper"; Memo Koller and the original writing of Alumninews"; Dan Weinberger and "Book Reviews"; Louise Pitman's "Open Letters"; Ginny Hoffman's "Jokes"; Mary Dix's editorials and Doris Foust's "Theo". Allan Dennis, Sports Editor, deserves a lot of credit for developing one of the best sports pages in the city.

Talon Reporters

Cheerleaders

"You've Got IT! Let's GO! Everyone at Buchtel is familiar with these words that preface the cheers for all the major events, as the cheerleaders go through their paces in an effort to get the student body and the teams working together. This year the energetic squad was composed of Marlene Ekus and Larry Ahern, co-heads of the squad, Janet Hunsicker, Al Ferrise, Joan Vernetzy and Bill Katzenzenmeyer. The cheerleading squad once more proved to be the keynote in Griff enthusiasm, not only on the field but in the school. As outstanding members of the Booster committee, under their influence, the assemblies took on a united feeling so that school and team were doing their best.

The senior members of the staff, Marlene Ekus, Larry Ahern, Janet Hunsicker, and Al Ferrise were awarded letters at the annual football banquet.

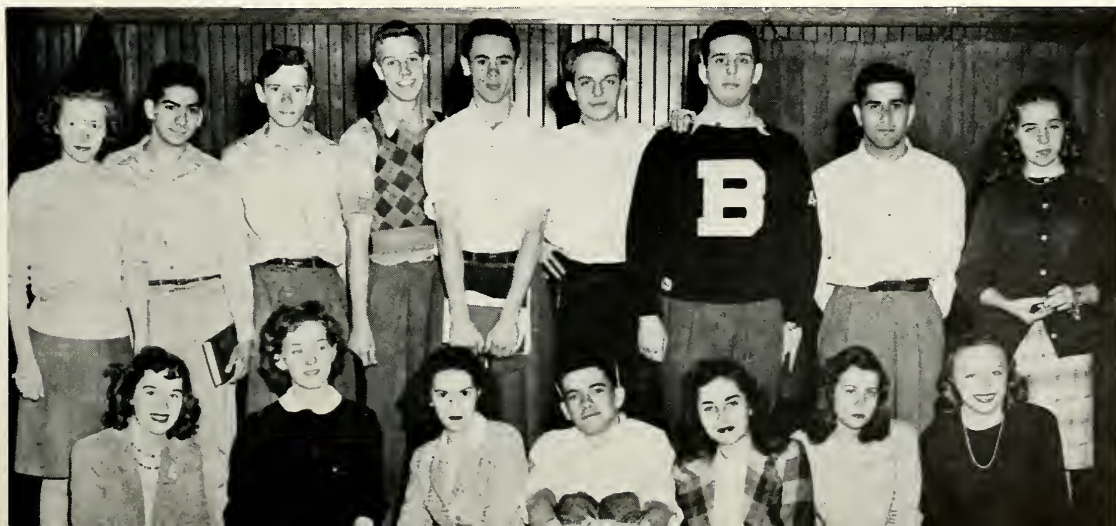

The Booster Committee

The Booster Committee was something new to Buchtel this year and was not in the form of a club, but just an unchartered organization with the purpose of bringing about better school spirit.

It was started by Marlene Ekus, co-head cheerleader. She and her many helpers planned the pep assemblies during the football season and promoted unity throughout the school.

The committee was made up of representatives from each of the school clubs, cheerleading squad, Talon staff, and faculty. Many other interested students came to meetings to give helpful suggestions and take part in assemblies.

The Booster Committee has become a part of Buchtel and in future years will probably become a chartered club.

Senior Girl Reserves

Chalk up another successful year of service and social activities for one of Buchtel's most outstanding and oldest clubs . . . The Senior Girl Reserves. Originating in 1933, the Girl Reserves have remained loyal to the YWCA code and the standards of Buchtel. Led by Jean Motz, president; Anne Guth, vice president; Mary Jo White, secretary; and Joan Vernotzy, treasurer; 161 members participated in sponsoring a Thanksgiving Worship Service at the Y chapel in November, a Christmas party for children of Miller school in December, a theater party for the Children's Home. Socially, in collaboration with their younger sisters, the Junior Girl Reserves, they gave a Mother-Daughter Tea and held a joint meeting with Girl Reserves from Garfield and West High. Miss Mabel Riedinger and Miss Beulah Hudson were the busy sponsors.

Membership in Girl Reserves is open to any girl at Buchtel who passes the written test and who agrees to live up to the Girl Reserve code. Girl Reserves are the junior members of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Hi-Y

One of the outstanding service clubs at Buchtel is the one called Hi-Y. This club, which is sponsored by Mr. Otis Maxwell, has taken on the project of taking care of the second floor trophy case which they have provided a platform for, and the planting of memorial trees for Buchtel servicemen, who died in service. President Walter Scott was aided by Fred Heffner, vice-president; Ed Mazak, secretary; Bill Chandler, treasurer; Jeff Richards, chaplain and Larry Ahern, sergeant-at-arms. Socially, the club sponsored a school dance, parties at Camp Mingo and a hay and sleigh ride, and the annual all-city semi-formal dance.

Membership is based on points which are given for participation in school activities.

Commercial Club

One of the most successful clubs at Buchtel is the Commercial Club, which was started two years ago. This year's officers were Margaret Maxson, president; Marie Emanuel, vice-president; Annabelle Gauder, secretary; and Judy Butcher, treasurer. Mrs. Beulah Hudson, Miss Ada Bell, and Mr. Harland Horton were faculty advisors for the club.

Among the activities were, the "Get-acquainted" party held last fall, a party at the Airport Shelter House, and a picnic at Camp Mingo.

The Glee Club

The Glee Club, organized fifteen years ago, has played an increasingly important part in school life. This year programs have been given for church organizations, P. T. A. meetings, civic organizations, besides performing regularly for the student body. Outstanding programs were the annual caroling through the halls at Christmas time, the regular Christmas assembly; the City Music Festival held in May and, foremost, the May Day Music festivities held at Buchtel.

Ruth Ann Cody as president, Arlene Swanson, vice president; Virginia Collins, secretary; Mary Ellen Goff, treasurer were the officers for the girls club. The boys elected Dick Ries their president; Jim Anderson, vice president; Carl Nelson, treasurer and Marshall Bell, secretary. The advisor is Mrs. L. Stoneburner.

Senior Griffin

The Senior Griffin, yearbook of senior activities is in your hands. It is designed to be your memory of four years well spent at Buchtel. Much hard work and many headaches have been involved in this book, but as you can see, everything has turned out fine.

There is a story behind this book that will illustrate the fine cooperation the senior class gave us in putting it out. When we found that our expenses were being raised, we were faced with the problem of getting more advertising revenue. We had already raised our goal from $300 to $500, but we needed more. So we cast a plea to the student body, and especially to the seniors. Within two weeks, our advertising income came up from $450 to $780. That money has made it possible for us to put out the kind of book you wanted. During this time we were faced with the loss of Bernard Guren, our advertising manager, who enlisted in the army; but quickly taking the reins was Dan Weinberger who has aided immeasurably in a financial capacity. Edited by Connie Keegan, special editors were Al Dennis, Louise Pitman, Doris Foust, and Mary Highfield. Art Editor is Helen Louise Myers, photography by Doris Carpenter and Bradley Peters and advised by Miss Madeline Fifer and Mr. Roland Switzer.

Junior Comwolei

The Junior Comwolei club is one of the most active clubs at Buchtel, being the service club of the afternoon school. This year's officers were Dwight Vincent, president; Mary Cattran, vice-president; Barbara Bower, secretary; and Bob Cohen, treasurer. Advisors for the club were Miss Sarah Mooney and Miss Mary Fisher.

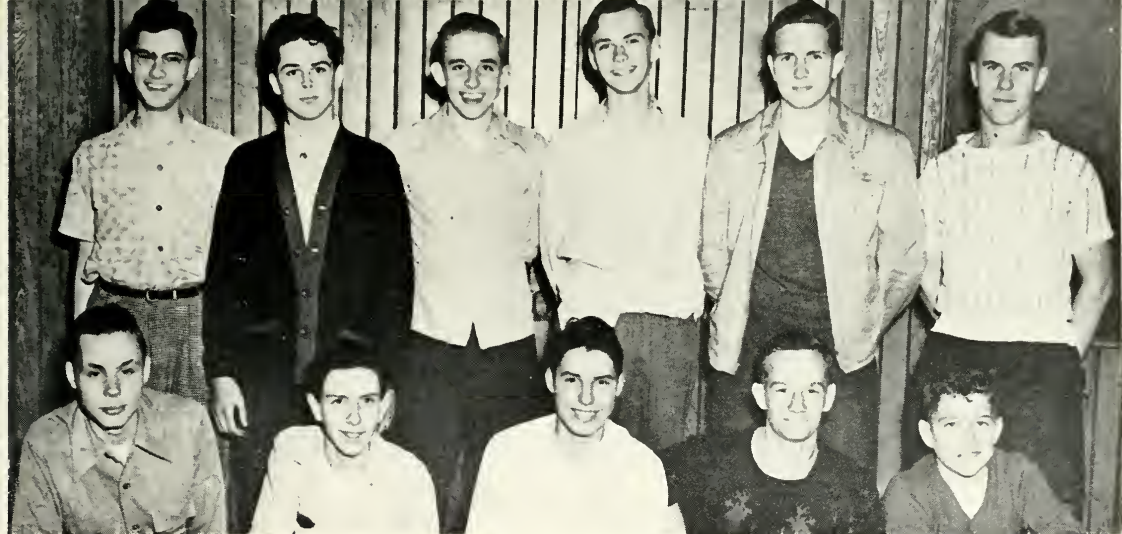

Charlotte Hakes was Red Cross representative and Alice Theis was head of the Cheerio committee, which sent greetings to sick members of the club. Junior Comwolei helped Senior Comwolei to collect money for the annual Red Cross Drive.

Junior Comwolei has an enviable service record, however many times they do not get the credit deserved by them.

The Comwolei clubs have united in "Companionship, Work and Leisure" giving Buchtel the benefit of their services.

Aero Club

The Aero Club, another new club at Buchtel is composed of students who are interested in aviation and seek to know more about aerodynamics, navigation, aircraft, structure, meteorology, radio, Civil Air Regulations and other related subjects.

The officers for this year are Lev Anderson, Commander; Ernest Kraatz, Captain; Bill Morton, Second Lt. (treasurer); and Don Harrington, First Lt. (secretary). The club's sponsor is Mr. Robert Palmquist.

Membership is limited to those who show their sincere interest in aviation by passing a written test.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, founded in the fall of 1945, has quickly become one of the most active and popular clubs at Buchtel, even though its age is still measured in months. The purpose is to promote better understanding of the Spanish speaking countries and to provide social activities for its members. Membership which is open to all taking Spanish, is composed of 100 juniors and seniors.

President Jean Musser headed an executive committee composed of Marcia Kuhlke, 1st vice president; Arlene Swanson, 2nd vice president; Patty Rose, secretary; Bill Allison, ass't. secretary; and Bill Rodenbaugh, treasurer. Miss Dorothy Marty is the sponsor.

Outstanding project this year was the "Fiesta" held in April for the school. Special Spanish entertainment, movies, fortune telling, curio shops were a few of the outstanding features. The Spanish Club gave the band uniform project $530 from the entertainment.

Latin Club

Buchtel's first Latin Club came into being this year under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Pfahl, Latin teacher. This club restricts its membership to those who have a high scholastic Latin grade, and therefore, is perhaps the most exclusive club here. Affiliated with the Junior Classical League for the purpose of gaining a better understanding of the world today with its debt to ancient civilization, its officers are senior Betty Wise, president; Frank Bland, vice president; Mary Pribonic, secretary; and Martha Minck, treasurer.

The meetings of the Latin Club are held every two weeks in the members' homes, another reason why membership is restricted. The emblem of the club is the Junior Classical League key. One of the outstanding projects was the trip to the Cleveland Art museum.

Junior Girl Reserves

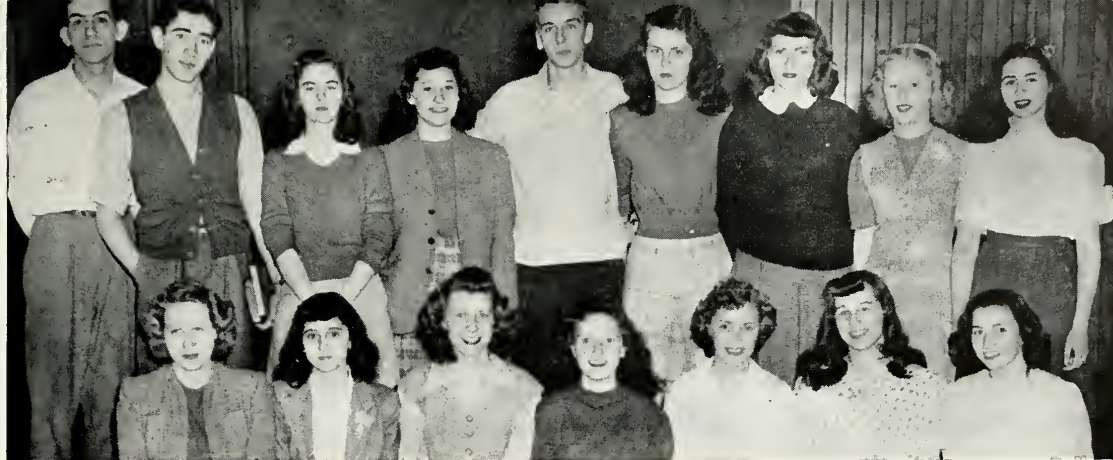

The Junior Girl Reserves, an organization of freshmen and sophomore girls was led this year by Joan Crutcher, president; Jill Lobach, vice president; Margery Sturdevant, secretary and Sally Arenson, treasurer. Their purpose is "To find and Give the best".

Special activities started out with the Annual Freshmen welcome party to acquaint the freshies with the club and its place in the life of Buchtel. At Halloween, the club sponsored the "Broomstick Ball" for the school. With their sister club, Sr. G. R., they held a Mother-Daughter Tea in December.

Service projects included a Christmas party for first grade students at Crosby school and decorating Easter eggs for the Children's Home. The club advisor is Miss Dorothy Nesbitt.

Dramatic Club

The dramatics club, which now is called "Mike and Masque" has resumed activity at Buchtel after a lapse of 3 years. This year the club was headed by Mary Elizabeth Woodling, president; Dave Colville, vice president; Marcia Kuhlke, secretary; Virginia Plale, corresponding secretary and Ellen Kastner, treasurer.

This club's schedule has been filled with program dates for the Parent-Teachers Association, a Christmas choral speaking program, skits which were given over the public address system for the school, a radio program given over WAKR and assembly for the whole school to present "High School Daze". Miss Lucille Gustafson has been the advisor.

Anyone is eligible to join, the only qualification for membership is sincere interest in dramatic work.

Science Club

The Science Club, under the combined leadership of Mr. Howard Reeves, sponsor and Dick Hood, president, completed another year that was packed with interest and fun for all the members. This club took many trips to places of scientific interest such as a visit to Massillon State Hospital, Goodyear rubber plant, and radio station WAKR.

Other outstanding meetings were given by a group of students who displayed chemistry magic, and Dr. Hayes, psychologist for the Board of Education. The club included on their program schedule a picnic at the Airport Shelter House and a bowling party. Other officers of the club are Bill Chandler, vice president; Jean Hodge, treasurer, and Pat Hays, secretary.

Only qualification for membership is a genuine interest in science.

Senior Comwolei

"Companionship, Work and Leisure" is the familiar motto of Comwolei. This year, Nancy Kniffin, president aided by Mary Ellen Goff, vice president; Dave James, secretary, and Katherine Graham, treasurer were the Senior Comwolei officers. Based on Red Cross volunteer work, Comwolei sponsored the drive for clothing to be sent to the Philippines and Europe, the filling of boxes with toys and health aids for European relief and provided food and amusement to the underprivileged people of the community. Miss Helen Phaff is the adviser.

Service News Letter

The Service News Letter sent to Buchtel boys in the service, is a condensed letter telling about school life and giving information about fellow Buchtel alumni. Every three weeks under the direction of Miss Dorothy Whittington, Don Holloway and Barbara Lee Timmins the letter goes out, to all places where Buchtel is serving.

"King B" Court

King B has been a Buchtel tradition since 1940 when the first king was elected. This year's King B, senior Bill Chandler, was crowned by Homecoming Queen Anne Guth at a Valentine Mixer February 12 in the Buchtel gym. Bill is also treasurer of Hi-Y.

Other senior attendants were Sam Tillett, class president; John Laibe, Student Council president; Joe Staudt and Wayne Bray, both basketball stars, and friendly Bob Spaethe.

Junior attendants were Jim Mercer, a football star, and Jim Beverly, a basketball guard.

Dick Everhard and Jack Usner represented the sophomore class.

The Homecoming Court

Homecoming Day, 1945 meant more to us this time than ever before because we were honoring not only our football team but also the returning Buchtel servicemen. This time the Homecoming Court was composed of the Queen, Anne Guth, junior; Crownner Jean Musser, senior; Jean Hodge, Virginia Plale, and Ruth Ann Cody, all seniors; Arlene Swanson, Marilyn McCreary, Frances Haramis, juniors; Martha Minck, Joan Crutcher, sophomores; and Mary Barimore and Bonnie Akins, freshmen.

The Homecoming ceremonies were held at the Buchtel-Kenmore football game at the Rubber Bowl, November 2. The Homecoming Dance was held Saturday night in the gym.

May Queen and Court

Ruth Ann Cody, senior, was crowned May Queen to reign over the spring festivities at Buchtel at the yearly May festival. This year, lovelier than ever, the queen and Court proceeded to the stage under arches of flowers held by members of the senior Glee Clubs.

The freshmen attendants Jackie Barlow and Janet Stewart led the procession, followed by sophomores Charlotte Hakes and Mary Firestone; Juniors, Marcia Kuhlke and Betty Vaughn and seniors Jean Hodge and Peg Garver followed shortly after. The Maids of Honor, Jean Musser and Pat Rose were followed by Crouner Virginia Plale. Ruth Ann Cody, Queen, was preceded by the flower girl, Judy Weiss, and crown-bearer Jimmy Switzer.

Football

On August 20th, a group of anxious, but inexperienced boys met at Buchtel High field with Coach Porosky to start football drills for the 1945 season.

With only a handful of experienced boys back from the previous year, Coach Porosky spent several weeks on fundamentals and reconditioning. After several more weeks of hard practice, the boys were finally ready to participate in the High School preview at the Rubber Bowl. Buchtel played East and beat them 7-0, Bob Sarkisian making the marker for Buchtel.

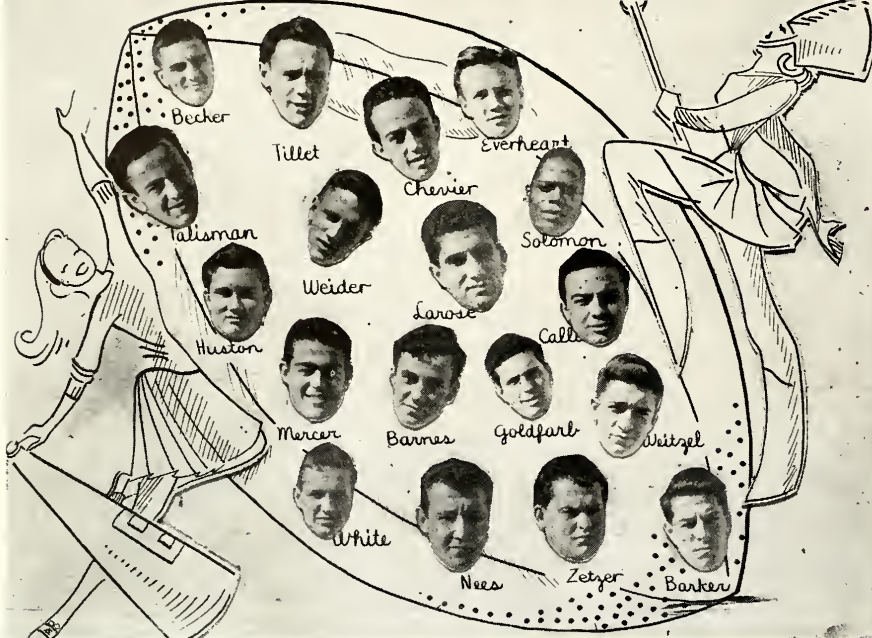

Buchtel dropped their opening game to Central 13-6. The Griffs played the Cats on even terms, but couldn't get across the line for a touchdown. And so the story went, game after game the Griffs lost by close scores and tough breaks. Buchtel lost to Canton Lincoln, 20-0; Wadsworth 8-6; and North, 14-7. North made their winning touchdown in the last 25 seconds of play. The Griffs played them on better than even terms before their winning touchdown.

Buchtel chalked up their first and only victory of the season by downing West, 21-7 in the mud. Sam Tillett made three touchdowns in that game. Buchtel then lost to Garfield and Kenmore by scores of 38-6, 27-7 respectively.

Most of the games featured the brilliant play of Captain Sam Tillett, Talon's all-city back. Harry Nees made the Talon's second team.

Graduating lettermen are: Wayne Bray, end; Bob Barnes, back; Bob Harpham, end; Herb Goldfarb, Tom LaRose, back; Sam Tillett, back; Bob Sarkisian, back; Jim White, guard; Bernie Zetzer, guard; Dave Becker, guard; Sharps Crislip, tackle; George Costas, end; Harry Nees, end; and Harold Talisman, end. Boyd Barker is the only returning letterman. Glenn Chevier received a letter when he graduated in January.

Although the boys gained but one victory, they deserve credit and congratulations for the hard work put in on the team. The season closed officially November 15th with the annual banquet. Student Managers awarded letters were: Neil Wilson, Dwight Vincent, and Nick Thomas.

This picture represents the first and second string "fighting Griff" football team. Those boys absent from the picture are Bob Sarkisian and Wayne Bray.

Outstanding Lettermen

Harry Nees

Sam Tillett

Wayne Bray

Harry Nees was the outstanding linesman on Buchtel High's football team. Harry was out for football two years and received a letter in his senior year. He made the Beacon's all-city third team and the Talon's second team.

Sam was one of the best football backs in the city. He gained more yardage from the position he played than any other player in the city. Sam received two letters in football and placed on the Beacon's all-city second team and on the Talon's first.

Although coming out for football in his senior year, Wayne Bray did well as an end. Wayne was on the receiving end of quite a few of Buchtel's passes. We think these three boys were the outstanding football players of the 1945 season.

Swimming

Swimming Team

City Champs 1945-46

Buchtel high school's powerful swimming team won the city swimming title this year making the fourth consecutive year that it has won the crown.

The tankers started off the season by trouncing West 8-8 and Garfield 56-10. Following this, Cuyahoga Falls was sunk 55-11, Hower 58-7, St. Vincent's 49-16, Massillon High 37-29 and overpowering Western Reserve 34-32, South was downed 54-12 and Massillon was downed 49-17 in a return meet. The lone defeat of the season was to Canton McKinley 38-28. However Neal Palmer broke the Canton pool's 60 yard individual medley record in the time of 36.9.

Then came the city championship meet with a strong East team. The score was tied, Buchtel 33 and East 33, with both teams having an equal number of first and second places, but Buchtel had four third places to East's two and this gave them their fourth straight city crown.

Buchtel also showed up well in the Fenn College relays at Cleveland. The tankers paced by Jack Taylor, Fred Heffner, Dick Cox, Neal Palmer, and Bob Hedenburg placed in the district and state meets, placing ninth in the state. The Griffs also walked off with the city meet.

Sophomores Jack Taylor and Fred Heffner broke two city records this year, Taylor in the backstroke and Heffner in the freestyle.

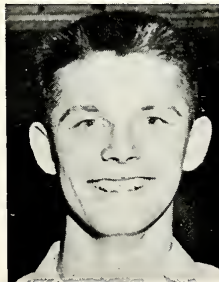

The squad will lose three lettermen this season. They are: Don Davidson, Jim Smith, and Dick Cox. Palmer, Taylor, Heffner, and Hedenburg, under-classmen, were the main factors behind the Griff drive. Other boys on the team working hard were: Dick Paige, Don Leatherman, Frank Johnson, Dave Brown, Bob Lombard, and Jack Martin.

Coach Milton Seitz is certainly proud of this fine team and thanks Harry Weiler of the Y. M. C. A. and Harry Minto of Firestone for the help given him.

Outstanding Senior Lettermen

Don Davidson

Don Davidson went out for the team in his freshman and senior years. He swam backstroke and was a factor in bringing home the city crown.

Jim Smith

Jim Smith was captain of the '45-'46 championship swimming team, winning a letter each of the last two years. Jim swam the breaststroke, backstroke and freestyle.

Dick Cox

Dick Cox won many honors swimming for the tankers all four of his years at B. H. S. He was a great help in getting the city championship the last two years.

Basketball

Buchtel High school's basketball season closed on March 28 with the annual banquet. The season was highly successful, especially when there was only one experienced player at the beginning of the season. The team won 11, while losing 5 games. Three of those teams that we lost to were beaten previously in the season. The team tied South in the city series race, both Buchtel and South winning 7 and losing 1 in regular series play.

Coach Porosky only expected a mediocre season, but was soon surprised as his boys beat St. Vincent in their third game. St. Vincent's had an all veteran team that had played together for two years. Buchtel then started on their tough series schedule and beat Kenmore, East, North and Garfield in succession. The Griffs then dropped their next two games to Central and St. Vincent. Then the Griffs did the impossible; they upset a favored South team, then riding a 12 game winning streak. Then Buchtel beat West, thus forcing a play-off game with South. Buchtel lost the game and city crown to South only after a terrific battle, the lead changing hands over a dozen times.

Then the Griffs entered the tournaments to beat Hower in the first game, but to lose to North in the second round. The team was slightly off par in the tourneys, partly because they had concentrated on winning the city crown.

The graduating lettermen on the team are: Joe Staudt, all-city; Wayne Bray, Talon all-city; John Laibe, second team all-city; and Sam Tillett, second team Talon all-city. Lettermen returning are Eddie Krainess and Jim Beverly.

The boys deserve a lot of credit for the fighting spirit they had all season. It was this determination that made the season so successful and makes winning teams. When the chips were down the boys could be counted on. Yes, the team of 1946 will be remembered as one of Buchtel's outstanding teams.

Outstanding Lettermen

Joe Staudt

Joe Staudt, forward on Buchtel's cage team was unanimously chosen for the Beacon's all-city team. Joe, famous for his left-handed shots from the corner, tallied a total of 213 points this season to set a new Buchtel scoring mark.

Sam Tillett

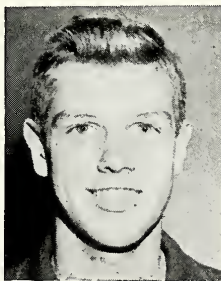

Some may ask why we consider Sam Tillett outstanding, but if one has followed Buchtel closely, they could see Sam was the best all-around and dependable player on the team.

Baseball

Outstanding Lettermen

Sam Tillett

Joe Staudt

Coaches Weir and Kinney rate Sam Tillett as one of the best catchers in Akron. Sam can really hold on to that ball and has a beautiful peg to second base. Although his hitting has been slightly under par he is one of Buchtel's best ball players.

One of the outstanding pitchers in the city, we rate Joe among Akron's best ball players. Joe has won 3 games, lost 1, and tied 1. He is also a good hitter and all-around player.

With three returning lettermen and an abundance of sophomores and juniors, coaches Weir and Kinney started the task of rebuilding Buchtel's baseball team.

After several weeks of hard practice Buchtel took the field against South. Buchtel won that game 2-1 after a pitcher's battle between Eli Joyce and Joe Staudt. The Griffs then lost to Central 9-2. These wins came over East, Cuyahoga Falls, Wadsworth, and Kenmore. Buchtel then dropped a close game to the unbeaten Garfield Prexies 2-0. Joe Staudt pitched masterful ball that day, but several untimely errors cost him the game. The Griffs then beat Hower 17-1 to close the first half league play.

The baseballers then entered the league tournaments to determine a team to go to the state finals. The first four teams in the league engaged in the playoffs with Buchtel downing South 10-0, while Garfield tripped Central. Buchtel dropped the deciding game to Garfield 5-4. Thus Garfield went on to represent the league in the district contests.

The second half league war- ring got off to a slow start due to inclement weather, but slowly gained momentum with the Griffs again downing South 6-4. Buchtel then played Central again. The score was tied 3-3. After 10 innings of play the game was called due to darkness. The tilt was to be finished the following week.

Buchtel still has to play East, Falls, Hower, Kenmore, and Garfield. If the Griffs can down these teams as they did in first half league play they may take the city championship. That is, if they beat Garfield, they can gain a tie for first place, providing they beat every other team. The Griffs are in second place now, only a game behind Garfield.

Graduating lettermen are Joe Staudt, Alex Velikoff, Wayne Bray, Sam Tillett, and Bob Robertson. Joe Staudt beyond a doubt is one of the best pitchers in the city, if not the best. Sam Tillett is one of the finest catchers in the circuit and has the respect of all base-runners. Wayne Bray is one of the best sluggers on the team, while Bob Robertson and Alex Velikoff played valuable relief and varsity roles.

John Laibe

John Laibe has broken Buchtel's high hurdle record at 15:3.5 seconds. John has been on Buchtel's team the past several years and also runs low hurdles. John high jumps at 5' 8".

Jesse Raynes

Jesse Raynes has been running the 440 in 52.2 seconds, which is very good time. Jesse also runs on the mile relay team. Jesse sacrificed personal glory for the team as he could probably run distance races faster, but he ran where Coach needed him.

Bob Harpham

Bob Harpham has also been one of Buchtel's high point men this year. Bob runs the low and high hurdles and runs on the 880 relay team. We think that Bob, Jesse, and Johnny are Buchtel's outstanding track men.

Buchtel's track team, under the coaching of Dave Appleby, has made an impressive record again.

The cindermen opened the season against North High's Vikings powerful squad. The Vikings edged Buchtel 60 1/3-56 2 3. Buchtel displayed plenty of power and, although they lost, they did come close to beating North.

Buchtel traveled to Garfield only to lose again to the Prexies, 61-57. Buchtel ran over a helpless Tallmadge team 106-12 in their first win.

Rated a third or possibly a fourth, Buchtel's squad upset the dope in the Akron Relays to gain a second. Buchtel finished ahead of Garfield and East and was hot on North's trail for first place.

Improving steadily and still remaining a constant threat for the city meet the boys downed South, Central, Barberton, and East in short order. The only team that gave the Griffs a fight was East. Leading the Griffs to these victories were: John Laibe, Bob Harpham, Jesse Raynes, Dick Sanford and Jack Usner. Other lettermen are: Bob Porter, Wilbur Cook, Bob White, Art Weitzel, Bob Sarkisian, Sharps Crislip, Jim Shaw, Tom Froelich, Leno Alessio, and Dick Hoffman.

The squad placed fourth in the district meet and four qualified for the state meet. Those boys were John Laibe who broke the school record in the high hurdles, and Bob Harpham who tied it; Jack Usner who broke the record in the broad jump; and Jesse Raynes who did the 440 in 52.2.

Buchtel now has the city meet to look forward to and if they continue to improve they could upset North, who is a heavy favorite to repeat as champ. Whether they do or not, this year's track team has been the most successful and well-balanced team in the history of the school.

Cross Country

Buchtel's cross country team closed the most successful season last fall. Graduating lettermen are Jesse Raynes, Leroy Tunnel, Leno Alessio, Wilbur Cook, Harold Schneider, Bill Hrubik, and Bill Chandler. Joshua Marks and Bob Gray graduated in January. Returning lettermen are Bob White, Ernie Kraatz, and Carl Nelson.

Golf

Buchtel's golf team is gaining a better record than any other Buchtel team and is going after the city links championship. With the district trophy already in their hands the linksmen have hopes of placing high in the state meet.

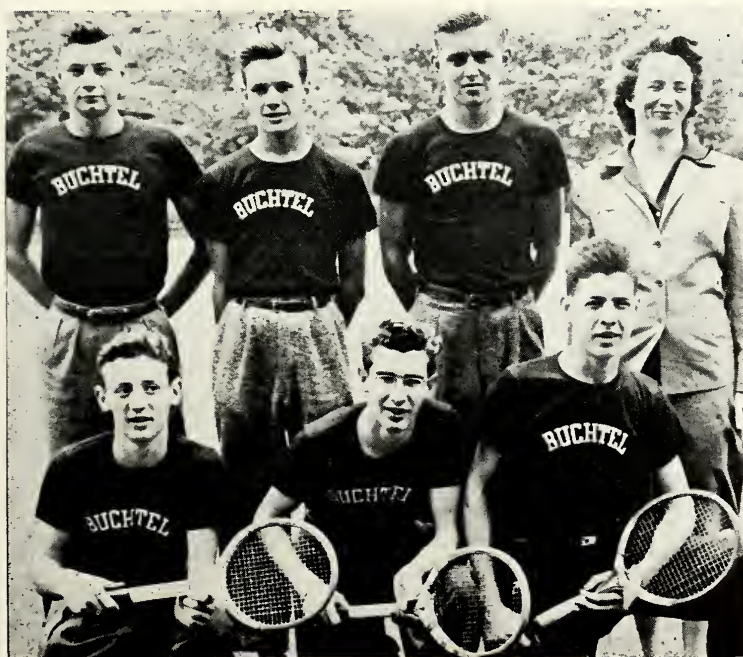

Making a quick comeback after several years absence, the team has downed West, Hower, Central, Kenmore, North, and East in short order. The team plays Garfield on May 31 for the city crown and is heavily favored to win.

The boys responsible for the successes are Dick Paige, who shoots under an 80; Bob Paige, his twin brother, who plays No. 4 position; Tom Chapman 2nd highest scorer, Al Featherston, and Chuck Redmond.

Tennis

Buchtel High's tennis team, making its first appearance in four years, closed a fairly successful season May 20 by bowing to West High's city and district champion team.

The netters under the coaching of Madeline Fifer finished third in the Greater Akron League. The squad has beaten Cuyahoga Falls and Central twice, while losing to West and Western Reserve twice.

Considering that West and Reserve had veteran teams from the previous years, the netters did a good job.

The boys who deserve credit for the successful season are: Roger Taylor, Larry Haberman, Dick Lieberth, Bill Katzenmeyer, Bill Rhodenbaugh, and Bob Johnson. These boys will receive letters and will be returning next year, (except Bob Johnson) to form the nucleus of another powerful squad.

JUST A PIECE OF POTTERY...

That simple little vase that Mother always gets out when Dad brings her flowers is probably to you just a piece of pottery . . . something that is taken for granted in the everyday course of events.

But did you ever stop to think what thought and effort and material have gone into that little bit of pottery . . . that in a Fredericksburg vase or planter, for instance, a famous New York designer first put a thought on paper and created a design that would blend well with the furnishings of a modern home . . . and that ceramics engineers then made blueprints and delved into the proper machinery and manufacturing processes which would best produce that certain article . . . that from pits in many parts of this country and other parts of the world, men dug the proper kind of clay to make that simple little vase just right . . . that color-makers strove to develop the shades most pleasing to the eye . . . and that workers in our factories mixed the materials . . . molded the clay . . . applied just the right amount of color and glaze to the right places at the right time . . . "fired" it in the kilns . . . inspected it . . . packed it . . . shipped it . . . and finally Mother spotted it and bought it and took it home and set it on the table and only then had the journey ended for that simple piece of pottery.

Next time that you're down in the rolling farmlands of Wayne County stop in and watch the famous Fredericksburg pattern of pottery being created. The welcome mat is always out.

ATTENTION . . .

BUCHTEL GRADUATES OF 1946!

Begin, or continue, your business training at Hammel Business University immediately after high school. Those urgent war conditions are over and the struggle for good jobs in private industry has begun.

Our Summer School Classes will begin Tuesday, June 4, and Tuesday, June 18. There will be classes for beginners in all Diploma Courses as well as for High School commercial course graduates.

Special Shorthand and Typewriting classes will be offered as an aid to those who plan to enter college next fall. Undergraduates may also attend our Summer School in forenoon sessions, or if employed they may attend other sessions also.

If there are brother or sister veterans of World War II in your home, they will be welcome to attend our school under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Neil Wilson, laughing, leaves locker 2064 to some unsuspecting freshman. LeRoy Tunnell expresses profound satisfaction and relief that the 7:31 dash from the electric car to class is done with—but he leaves to Jim Anderson the first chair in the trumpet section plus all the fun.

Item VII. Thomas A LaRose leaves his share of C9H13N to Steve Bader while Jean Motz leaves the Buchtel halls silent and how the undergrads will miss her laugh! Attention! Eddie Krainess: Jean Basford leaves her natural blond hair to needy Buchtel babes. Ruth Ann Cody wills her luck in keeping Sammy to Joan Stuart as Sammy Tillett leaves his mop of hair to Robert Palmquist. Barb Wilson gives her locker to her latest love, namely Jim Anderson and Peggy Potter leaves "you know what" to Jim.

Ted Prentice leaves his Hi-Y sweater to any sucker who will pay $9 for it (pre-war, black with white edges). Charlie Strigle will to J. R. Buchtel, his good spirits (80%). Jim White leaves his knowledge of the airplane engine in 314 to anyone who gets it apart and forgets how to put it back together, (as he did). Dick Hood gives his saxophone back to the union and also his petitions to elect a new president of the union.

Gerry Gollings leaves her love for "big centers" to Mari Keegan for future use. Don McEnteer leaves the Buchtel girls (exceptions, of course) to that wail, Mr. Weir.

Item VIII. Patt Skidmore leaves her changeable moods and mixed up love life to Barbara Young. Along with that gift comes "E-BOB-O'LEE-BOB". Adeline Weil sadly leaves the "Peerless gang" her locker along with all the pictures of Van Johnson. Betty George leaves her early morning talks with Miss Rentschler to all unfortunate late risers.

To Bill Allison, Hale Hardy leaves his good luck at getting through Buchtel and his half of the locker. Dave Becker leaves his chapel ticket to Vince DelMedico. Alice Cattran relinquishes to her little sister, Mary, the gym locker key and a quart of her super special midnight oil.

Item IX. Bill Greenwald leaves, hearing the teachers breathe a sigh of relief, knowing that no more of the Greenwalds will ride the trail to Buchtel again. Helen Cristensen wills her bottle of peroxide to "Nat" Conrad and anyone who thought she had H2O2 hair. Bea Lindstrom leaves her 5ft. 1 3/4 in. to June Swing.

Rosie O'Blisk leaves her long hair to anyone with the patience to take care of it while Audrey Rine leaves her bangs to Peggy Kunkleman. Margaret Oreschak heirs out her voice to any worthy individual. John Gillespie hands down his collection of women to "handsome" Werner Blair. Dorothy Sniff shoves her dimples Doris Carpenter's way. Mary Ellen Geff donates her natural curly hair to Mary Ann Baremore while Frieda Guren wants to will her quietness to Peggy Kunkleman but she knows she wouldn't keep it. Barbara Gresham bestows her nicknames "G. G." and P. H. G." on anyone who will take them. Donna "Daisy Mae" Krug and Jack "Lil' Abner" Martin leave their affection to Dick Sheldon and Marilyn Fisher. Jay Wetz throws his trouble with Mr. Seitz to some unsuspecting freshman.

Item X. Jackie Cook wills her line to anyone who wants to hang up a bathing suit as Pat Gerson relinquishes her locker and mirror to Joan Holub. Jim Leggett donates the remainder of the skin of his teeth to Mr. Weiss and his tricky trig tests. Rosemary Ritter leaves her love for red hair to some other blond while Brad Peters bequeaths his ability to cheat people out of money to Jim Walters (as if he needed it).

Pat Liebenderfer leaves her trap for someone else to set as Ernie Glasser leaves his way with women to some unfortunate would-be wolf. Jim Mamas leaves that-a-way in a big hurry. Barbara Bittner . . . Hubba! Hubba! Bwang! Jerry Isham leaves his hair cut to the Fuller Brush man.

Item XI. Louise Pitman leaves her "Bacall" look to sweet innocent Janet Marr.

Yes, in Swanville, U. S. A., they have reason to wonder about the youth of 1946 because imagine how they would look without their hair, eyes, etc. But then it must be noticed that these youths turned out all right for there is still a world in 4,000 A. D. and still going strong.

"The Swing Today Is To HOLTON"

15 Years Of Buchtel High

Dorothy Whittington the paper was small and the first issue carried a slate of names for the paper. The overwhelming choice was, The Talon. Until 1938 the Talon was a four column paper and then that year it became the only six column newspaper in the city. Now, the Talon is the only one coming out twelve times a year.

The Talon has stood consistently high is promoting school projects and has taken the lead in school spirit. It remains as one of the highest honors to serve on her staff.

Many new organizations have been formed at Buchtel since the first year. These include Band, under the direction of Miss Leora Stoneburner, Quill and Scroll, journalistic honorary, Girl Reserves, Hi-Y and Radio, Stamp, Art, Camera, Commercial, Pan-American, and Handicraft clubs. Many of these died off during the war and because of lack of interest, however students have always been free to organize a club for their interests and this year many clubs have started in this manner. Latin and Spanish clubs have just been organized, Aero club has been formed and the Dramatic club re-established.

Mr. Bowman left Buchtel in 1936 to become assistant superintendent of schools and Mr. O. L. Schneyer, then assistant became principal with Miss Beatrice Rentschuler and Mr. Cyril Woolcock as his assistants. Mr. Woolcock left in 1940 and Mr. Fred Weber took his place to form our present staff.

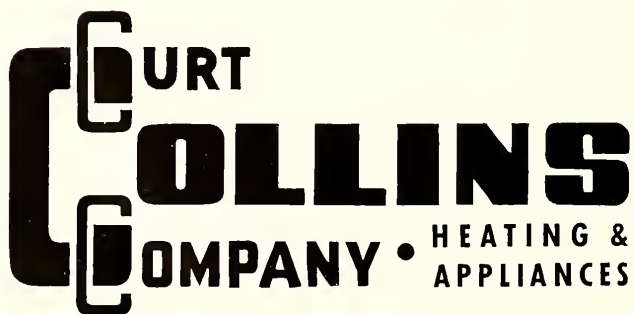

This year Buchtel has built a complete sports program as had been the custom in pre-war years. In the major sports of football and basketball we have always supported fighting teams under Coach Andrew Porosky, who came to Buchtel from Central in 1934. In 1939 we marked our first city series victory against Central 7-0. Though still looking forward to a City Football Championship, we have come heartbreakingly close to it, in recent years. In basketball

And, In The Future

Chatting happily, I heard that Carol Achberger married some out-of-town man and was honeymooning in Hawaii, and Mary Jane Clark and her sister had a double wedding. Leah Friend now runs the "Friend-Lee Interior Decorating Shop" while Danny Weinberger who was puttering around in Psychology, was finally taken away yesterday. After promising not to tell, Betty also told me that Bobbie Myers was a candidate for the career girl of the year. Parting from them, I decided to try a little exercise and there was Joe Staudt in one of the booths. Yes, he loved baseball and I hated to hit him but I did want the prize and what a prize! Peg Garver. Hoping I could add to my collection, I tried another round and got Pat Rose. With my arms loaded, I went to see Swami Wilbur Cook, who finally got over being so gullible and he told me that once more the big show was starting with the "S. A. R. G. B.'s" taking the spotlight. That's from right to left: Dorothy Sniff, Ann Acquarone, Audrey Rine, Freda Guren and Aloma Benton while bandleader Herb Ovshinsky and Bernard Guren (pvt.) were just watching . . . period.

Bernard Zetzer has a nice little dancing place made notorious by T. D.'s "At the Fat Man's." Betty Stupak is keeping busy running up and down the aisles selling "Peanuts, Popcorn and Crackerjack!"

Ringmaster Bill Pounds exercises his vocal chords announcing Walter Scott, the only man in captivity who has shaven for 16 years without cutting himself. (He's saving his money so he can buy some razor blades.) Bob Robertson, the "bum in blue" holds Walt's kit.

Here's a special announcement! In case of injury, go to tent 2 where Nurse Marianne Parks and her assistants, Marguita Fox, Virginia Casterton, Dolores Schnitzler and Donna Welton will hold your hand.

As I was listening to this announcement, I noticed Cyn Andersen with an arm-load of roses from one of her wealthy admirers. A few rows down was Jim Brand, sound asleep. Suddenly I felt one of Sharps Crislip's super spit balls (bought in the germ proof package) on my Marie Emanuel gown; I turned and looked at Sue Brawn who was wearing an unnatural innocent look.

Ruth Petratka was busy trying to psychoanalyze the ring master as he informed us all that we were about to see Dick Lieberth, the father of triplets, one boy and one girl. And still more amazing is Virginia Hoffman who has gained a track team. (To think that B. H. S. has a hundred on theirs). "Ginny" appears with Juanita Crislip, the only girl in captivity, who can't make up her mind.

Everyone is now standing at attention as Eugene Altenburger, Admiral and Jeff Richards, plebe at Annapolis come in. Trailing behind his superiors is Bob Parker wearing good old "bell-bottoms".

The show went on with Barb Deubler putting her gophers through their paces while in the next arena is pert "Kookie" Graham, taming all the wolves, Wayne Bray, Bill Grieves, and Ed Mazak. (I tell you, it's not safe in that cage!)

Now a little seriousness, as Rody Radgers tells the advantages of having a garden room. Above the applauding, Dave Becker could be heard trying to sell his book, "The Halogenation of Hydrocarbons in the Benezene Group of the Aromatic Series". All that for only $25.

Rushing out in the center ring are our busy little carpenters, Audre King, Delores Odell and Jane Dutt building a cottage; "Aud" just painted No. 134 on it, but then Judy Fisher set it on fire from the stored up sun of her sun tan and Carmen Granieri with his little fire fighters, Roger Harvey and Bob Rolle form a bucket brigade to put it out. Getting in the spirit of the thing, Jim Watson (who has made a better hamburger than Swenson) joins in on the fun. Fighting his way in through the smoke, Bernie Bear valiantly clears the tent until the smoke can escape.

Through the smoke and flame is Jaque McLaughlin, sitting in the middle of the ring, eating half a barrel of olives while Ching Redmond eats the other half out of her hand. (Oh, hubba!)

Overhead, Barbara Shaemaker is swinging from trapeze to trapeze and of all the gasps, the longest come from George Bogdan and Bob Fouts, who are dropping their popcorn all around their feet.

Down below, Helen Louise Myers and Alice Bowman are doing a last minute job on the scenery. Ed Rogel, Bob Stitt and Jim Giffels push it out. Jim Burich adjusts the spotlight and now action! Marilyn McCollum and Flash Gordan climb into their rocket to Mars!

In the ring to the left, is Howard Klippel, aiming his Springfield rifle at Eileen Craig and outlining her figure with his bullets. To the right is Doris Foust and Mary Ann Howes watching a movie starring Mary Boyers in "An Old Maid in a Bachelor's Home". As the lights come on they find they are surrounded by Tom Dunderman, Bob Franz, Robert Moore and Harry Stein.

Out on the runway again, there's a sign inviting all to Mary Jo White's "Sunday Morning Lectures"; I make a mental note to go next Sunday and hope that Ray Stankard doesn't keep her out too late the night before. Spending my last dime I see Margaret ("Dabby") Maxon, the dog-faced girl.

"I saw them standing in the sun and they were something to see," that is, Carolyn McDaniels and Betty Butcher, pals to the end. Listening to them talk about Esther Galat's big family. I went through the door marked "Dick Cox; the Man With the Most Embarrassing Picture of Himself". Realizing why Dick is so against photographers on hayrides, I noticed Jack Dettling laughing and then I saw B. D. R. roller-skating down the runway.

After the judges had decided the contests, I admired John Gillespie's "8 Ball" which took prize (I can't remember in what though), Ruth Hoeflerle's gold cup for bowling and Clarice Klein's winning steed. Also admiring the displays were Doris Loughridge, Leah Weis, Mary Winters and Eleanor Meyers, while Don Holloway stood in the background admiring them. (Which? Natch.)

Margaret Oreschak whizzed by murmuring something about beating Virginia Pale to California but I'm afraid Evelyn Thom will beat her, for she just flew by.

The show is over for here comes Dolores Davidson with a good book under her arm. (Her latest one, it's rumored.) And over there is Hale Hardy, a $1 a year man; just $9,999 more to go, huh kid!

Yes, this circus was a success and the old homestead is finally saved. Were you wondering about the Class of '46 running a circus? Isn't it natural? After all they had a circus for four years way back in '43-'44-'45-'46. I know for I was there.

15 Years Of Buchtel High

we have won the Border League Championships in 1939 and '40. Our greatest triumph in sports came in 1945 when Buchtel won the City Series Championship against South.

In the spring sports picture, our record is enviable with city championships in golf for the years 1937-'38-'39-'41 and '42. The Tennis team captured crowns during 1938 and 1939 while the baseball team came in first in 1940. Golf and tennis were discontinued during the war but were revived this spring. The swimming team has established one of the finest sports records, producing championship teams in 1939-'42-'43-'44-'45 and again in 1946, bringing home the trophy to rest among our other awards.

Each year large numbers of boys turn out for cross-country and track teams, many finally placing in district and state meets. The highly contested inter-class track meets have unearthed new talent for the future track teams.

For participation in sports the boys receive gym credits, points and letters. These honorary "B's" are displayed in the second floor alcove along with our other trophies.

Buchtel, though young, is rich in tradition. Since 1938 we have had pre-Thanksgiving Turkey Day Race with a live gobbler going to the winning runner. Recently revived is the Faculty-Varsity basketball game providing one of the most hilarious events of the year. Each fall we select a Homecoming Queen to reign at the close of the football season and in February the school picks a "King B" to reign at our Valentine Mixer. The Spring Sports program is preceded by an election of May Queen and Court.

At the beginning of World War II, students at Buchtel High pitched in to do their share of work. Many hundreds of alumni entered the armed services and it was in their honor and respect that the service flag came into being. Of more than 1,600 stars on the service flag, the fifty-sixth and God willing, the last, was turned to gold on this Memorial Day. In remembrance of their sacrifice, living memorials in the form of trees to grace the campus have been planted. Buchtel, like other high schools throughout the nation, has had a fine record of war stamp sales, being awarded the Minuteman Flag by the Treasury department in 1944.

Each month since the beginning of the war, a Service Newsletter was printed and sent to Buchtel boys in service. These bulletins of condensed news about school life and fellow fighters were distributed throughout the globe.

Scholastically, Buchtel rates very high, with many honors taken annually. Participation in the Senior Scholastic and the Kent District examinations show that Buchtel students are receiving the best in education and they have taken advantage of that fact. Today, the fifteenth graduating class foresees many more years of service and of school life enriching the city, state and nation.

Buchtel was not structurally finished because of the failure of the voters to pass the school bond issue following the depression era. Although this situation has caused many inconveniences and hardships, notably the double session, Buchtel is now confident that in the near future, our school will be completed. The picture at the bottom of the page will be the finished Buchtel, accommodating 1,500 students and providing enlarged classrooms, a cafeteria, two gymnasiums, an auditorium and a swimming pool. With this in mind, the loyal Buchtelite of today is now looking forward to the near future and a completed John R. Buchtel High.

Senior Profile

Editor's note: The following people were chosen on the basis of character, citizenship and culture to serve as leaders of the June '46 class. As such, we feel that they deserve special recognition.

—M. E.

NANCY KNIFFIN

President of Comwolei.

When you think of Nancy Kniffin, you think of a girl with a radiant personality and pretty red hair.

Nancy has been active in Comwolei, holding the office of president in her sophomore and senior years. She has served on the Student Council in her junior and senior years. Nancy was all-city Junior Red-Cross President. Her other activities include Science Club, Spanish Club, N. H. S., Activities Committee, Latin Club, and Booster Committee. Versatile Nancy always finds time to accept added responsibilities.

Nancy likes to swim and spends much time horse-back riding during the summer.

Her future? Nancy is thinking of Denison University and of becoming a child psychologist.

JOHN LAIBE

President of Student Council.

John Laibe needs no introduction to students of Buchtel. This 6 ft. 4 basketball and track star has been prominent in school activities all of his four years.

John was elected to the King "B" court in his senior year and reigned as "All-City Girl Reserves King of '46".

He is well known for his friendliness and ability to make friends.

Many people say a boy either plays basketball or devotes his time to studying. But here is the boy that excels in more than one field. Johnny was also elected to the National Honor Society.

Johnny's ambition is to become a chemical engineer.

MARLENE EKUS

Co-head Cheerleader, Chairman Booster Committee.

Vim, vigor, and vitality are the words to describe versatile Marlene Ekus, known to Buchtelites as "MEME".

Though it may not be known Meme does a lot of singing. Just give her a piano with "Stardust", or "Begin the Beguine" or the like and she does a fine job. Meme's other preference is dancing.

She plans to attend Ohio State next Fall. Meme's secret ambition is to become a psychologist and is thinking seriously of it.

Her senior activities include: Booster committee, cheerleading, Sr. Glee Club, Science club, Talon, Sr. Griffin, National Honor Society, Activities committee, and Quill and Scroll. She was a member of Comwolei for three years, serving as treasurer in her junior year.

A true Buchtelite, Meme will leave Buchtel with many memories.

CONNIE KEEGAN

Editor-in-Chief Talon, Senior Griffin.

Connie Keegan has served this year as editor-in-chief of both the Talon and Senior Griffin.

In local journalistic circles she has held the office of chairman of the newly organized Inter-High Press Council. These are, of course, her outstanding interests but she has been active in other fields as well. She is a member of the Booster Committee, served as vice president and cabinet member of Girl Reserves, and spent two summers at Camp Yawaca as a junior leader.

Next Fall Connie will enter De Pauw University. She is planning to take a general course but expects to enter the advertising business after graduation.

DICK HOOD

Science Club President.

The head man of the Science club this year is Dick Hood. This, however, has not been his only activity here at Buchtel. He is a loyal member of Hi-Y, plays in the band, and as a sophomore served on the student council. Dick has also helped in school programs with his skillful handling of the "mike".

Aside from school activities Dick is treasurer of a young peoples' group and plays the "sax" for a local dance band.

Recently Dick won honors as one of the 105 top students in the country in a National Honor Society Scholarship Contest. Dick is planning to study engineering at M. I. T.

MARY DIX

President National Honor Society.

Mary Dix would ordinarily deserve recognition for her services to Buchtel through the student council but being one of the most outstanding senior girls, she is also credited with leading the National Honor Society.

Mary has been awarded a renewal scholarship at Flora Stone Mather College where she plans to be an English composition major. Mary is a candid person and takes advantage of her share of wit!

A true Buchtelite, Mary characterizes Buchtel's standards of Character, Citizenship, and Culture. The National Honor Society could not have made a wiser choice for their president than Mary Dix. She has been a very important person in holding high the standards of the National Honor Society.

JEAN MOTZ

President Sr. Girl Reserves.

Charming Jean Motz, well known president of Sr. Girl Reserves has been one of the most dependable leaders of the senior class.

Jean's leadership ability is undeniable when one considers that she spent a summer instructing a group of young campers. This took place at Yawaca.

Jean's hobbies are varied; her singing ability has been utilized by Sr. Glee Club; she enjoys dancing and her sense of humor makes her a favorite with boys and girls alike.

Her college plans are for Ohio Wesleyan. Jean has not yet decided upon a vocation.

Senior Profile

WALT SCOTT

President Hi-Y.

Walter Scott is the type of person who can analyze problems and come up with a solution that never fails. This characteristic has made him the very valuable president of Hi-Y, boys service club.

Walt's cosmopolitan interests include: dancing, being with "his boys" and driving around in his car.

His plans for the future include summer school at Akron University; his vocational field is, as yet, undecided. Walt has done an excellent job as president of Hi-Y this year.

JEAN MUSSER

President Spanish Club.

Whenever you see a tall, vivacious blonde walking through the halls it is no doubt Jean Musser, president of the new Spanish Club, which was organized this year.

Jean was the Homecoming Queen of 1944 and was crowner this year. She has also been on the May Court. She has been active in the Girl Reserves, and Science Club this year.

Jean would like to become a linguist and wants to major in literature at college. She likes horseback riding, hamburgs and swimming.

MARGARET MAXSON

President Commercial Club.

A girl who always has a smile for fellow students is friendly Margaret Maxson, president of Commercial Club. If you'd like to find madame president during the hotter summer months of the year just head for White Pond—her favorite "swimmin'-hole."

The future undoubtedly holds a full store of success for Marg, and if she has her choice, 1950 will see Miss Maxson a private secretary in an office of a big business magnate.

Leaving Buchtel and Mr. Horton will be hard for Margaret, but with such bright hopes who could get sad? Margaret's sense of humor and friendliness make her well-liked by students and faculty alike.

LARRY AHERN

Co-head Cheerleader.

If Bob Hope were to have a double at Buchtel, Larry Ahern would walk away with the award.

Larry has taken an active part in Hi-Y activities in his junior and senior years.

Larry would like to become a professional photographer like Bruno of Hollywood. His pet pastime is shooting pictures of hayrides—just anything exciting—that's for Larry!

A typical high-schooler, Larry is known for his bright socks and saddle shoes.

With a personality like Larry's his future looks exciting.

BETTY WISE

President of Latin Club.

One of those girls who has a name for being so active in school clubs is Elizabeth (Betty) Wise, president of the Latin Club. Betty has been on Student Council each of her four years. She is also an active member of Girl Reserves, Comwolei, and Science Club.

Betty is a tall brunette who is known for her continual talking. She would like to go into the medical profession. Betty will even settle with being a doctor's assistant. Outstanding for her willingness to cooperate, Betty was chosen president for the newly organized Latin club in her senior year.
